PSC Advises Angles Telephone Customers On Possible Refund

(MONTGOMERY) — The Alabama Public Service Commission today announced that customers subscribed to Angles Communications Solutions who prepaid for January 2012 telephone services may be entitled to a refund.

The Alabama Public Service Commission was advised by Angles in early January 2012, that local telephone service in Alabama was discontinued. The company issued a letter to its customers alerting them that service was being discontinued in late December. However, the Commission has learned of cases, due to the pace of holiday mail and unforeseen circumstances, where customers failed to receive notice and may have already submitted their January payments for service to the telephone service provider.

Customers who paid Angles for January 2012 telephone service should contact the Alabama Public Service Commission for instructions on obtaining a refund of the payment. The toll-free telephone number is 1-800-882-3919. For more information regarding the Alabama Public Service Commission, visit our website at www.psc.alabama.gov.
